In the early hours of Sunday, January 18, a local billboard was painted over as the Palestinian flag. This action is a reminder of the ongoing resistance against colonialism happening in Palestine, here on Turtle Island, and across the world. It is also a call to paint the town, tear it down, confront everyone and everything until Palestine is free, empires falls, and colonialism is dead.

The billboard in question is on a parcel of land near the corner of beltline and west 11th, and can be seen from northbound beltline on the overpass after Roosevelt.
